

CVS Caremark may use AI to help review and process coverage requests, including approving requests that meet coverage criteria requirements. AI is not used to deny coverage requests. Any decisions to deny coverage based on medical necessity are made by licensed healthcare professionals.